

International Financial Analyst - Intern

Workplace: Poznań

About Cleeng

Launched in 2011, we are a fast-growing startup that already generates multi-million dollars in revenue, with offices in Amsterdam (NL), Poznan (PL), Paris (FR), and NYC (US). Our clients include FIFA, MAy-Paq, Dailymotion, Cirque du Soleil and many more in 65 different countries. Founded by passionate web experts from Apple, Philips, Packard Bell, we are looking for talented people to join the team and help us become the leader in our market – selling videos online, live and on-demand.

To cope with our growing business we are creating an exciting opportunity for a smart intern looking to gain experience within international finance.

We are looking for a talented intern to join the team from October 2016 onwards.

Candidate's profile:

- 3th year of a business school with a financial specialization
- Excellent attention to details
- Good Excel skills
- Good dashboards and presentation skills
- The ability to work independently and as part of a team
- English skills (B2 or more)

Responsibilities:

- Supporting finance director with preparation of global VAT reporting compliant with MOSS
- Assist with proper costs booking
- Covering basic Accounts Receivables and Payables tasks
- Assist with the month closing process by completing or providing necessary documentation
- Helping with random financial queries on daily basis

We offer:

- Work in dynamic, multinational environment
- Possibilities of personal and professional development
- Full-time, paid internship
- Flexible working hours

If you are interested in this offer, please send us your CV to finance@cleeng.com